

Flag Ceremonies Month: November

Stars and Stripes - Our American Heritage

Supplies needed:

3 bandanas

1 flashlight

Opening:

Member stands blindfolded, gagged, and bound before the audience.

The Reader says:

“This is an American boy/girl. The American Revolution won him/her freedom.

(helper unbinds him/her)

The Constitution guarantees him/her free speech.

(remove the gag)

A free education gives him/her the ability to see and to understand.

(remove the blindfold)

Let us help 4-H to teach him/her to preserve and enjoy his/her glorious heritage and to become a good citizen.

Turn off lights, spotlight American Flag, and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.
