

2008 Texas 4-H Fashion Show Narrator Contest

Script for Fashion Show Narrator Applicants

NARRATOR AT PODIUM

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am _____ . It is my pleasure to provide the commentary for the 2005 Texas 4-H Fashion Show.

SCENE 1:

NARRATOR READS SCENE INTRODUCTION AS MODELS
WALK OUT TO GET INTO POSITION.

INTRODUCTION

We invite you to sit back, relax, and enjoy the latest fashions presented by the 2008 State 4-H Fashion Show contestants. Beginning today's fashion show is the Buying Casual Division.

1)

Comfort and practicality are two key words in Mindy Riecher's shopping bag. Mindy, is from Van Zandt County, has wisely chosen a white over-size shirt, hounds tooth pants, and navy vest that can mix well with her wardrobe. The outfit will also be great to wear to senior get togethers, football games, and 4-H events. Great consumer skills, Mindy.

SCENE 2:

INTRODUCTION

Let's change the pace a little! This next division is Construction and the category is Formal. These 4-H'ers look as if they are ready for the prom or any formal occasion.

- 2) Allison Ng, from Montague County, has chosen the simple classic lines of the orient for her formal gown this year. She has accented the black, jacquard fabric with gold buttons. The semi-fitted, full length gown features a mandarin collar and mock loop closures. Allison, you look very mysterious in your oriental formal.

SCENE 3:

INTRODUCTION

The Specialty category begins with bright colors and a lot of pizzazz. Watch, as we pick up the pace with these outstanding and varied outfits.

- 3) Ready for the beach! Andrea Jouridine, Culberson County, has chosen a colorful, diagonal plaid for her bathing suit. The suit, with its high neck and criss-cross straps in the back, is made of cotton and spandex. With her coordinating hunter green, drawstring shorts, Andrea is ready for the water or a volleyball game in the sand. Have a great summer, Andrea!