

International Exchange Programs

Project Description

Texas families may host international youth for a four-week immersive homestay (Inbound). Texas 4-H members may travel abroad (Outbound) for a similar four-week homestay. This even is done in partnership with States 4-H International Exchange.

In participation of this event, 4-H members and families can expect to learn about the culture of others, share their culture with others, expand their communication skills, learn to cooperate with others.

Inbound Program

- 4-week immersive homestay, July-August
- Family provides meals and accommodation for one youth or adult chaperone
- No fee or stipends to participate
- No group activities scheduled
- Families across the state
- Families apply January - April

Outbound Program

- 4-H youth, senior level (grades 9-12)
- Apply by November 1 for summer travel
- 4-week immersive homestay with Host Families
- Countries: Japan, Costa Rica, South Korea, Norway, Denmark
- Average expense: $4,000.
- 4-H Adult Volunteers may apply to chaperone

MORE ABOUT INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAMS

Where:

Inbound international delegates are typically from Japan, sometimes South Korea. Youth are usually 11-16 years of age and have varying English speaking skills. Outbound experiences are available for 4-H members in Japan, Costa Rica, South Korea, Norway, and Denmark.

When::

Families should apply in January through April to host. The delegates will be in Texas mid-July to mid-August. 4-H youth wanting to travel abroad should apply by November for summer travel.
