

State Dog Show

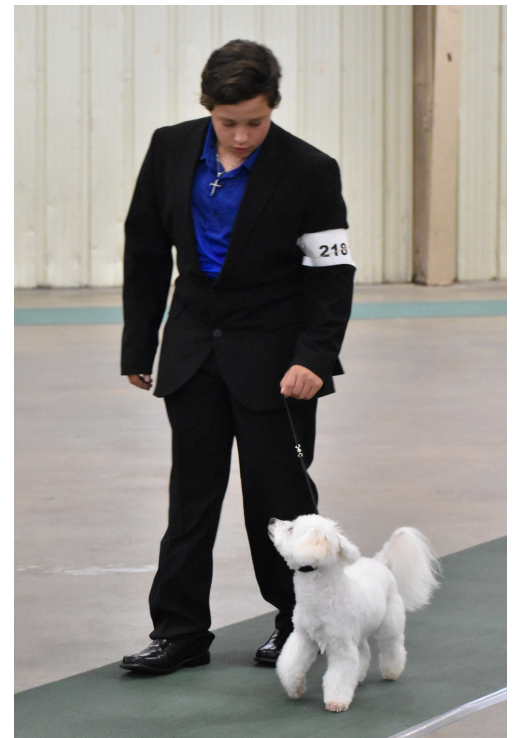

The Texas 4-H Dog Show specifically focuses on dog-related activities and competitions involving 4-H members and their dogs. Participants may compete in various categories, such as obedience, showmanship, rally, and more, depending on the specific rules and events organized by the Texas 4-H program.

The Texas 4-H Dog Show is a competitive event where 4-H youth take their dogs to be evaluated and judged according to standards set by the AKC.

Knowledge and skills gained through participation

- Public Speaking and Presentation - Learn to talk to judges, peers and other public figures,.
- Goal Setting: Participants set goals for themselves and their dogs, such as achieving specific training milestones or earning awards in different categories. This encourages goal-setting and planning skills.
- Sportsmanship - Competing in dog shows provides an opportunity to learn about good sportsmanship. Participants learn how to handle both victories and defeats graciously and respectfully.
- Life Skills - Beyond the specifics of dog care and training, participants develop life skills such as patience, discipline, perseverance, and empathy through their experiences with their canine companions
