Course Of Action

Extension employees responsible for 4-H program and events/activities are encouraged to communicate to 4-H participants and adult chaperones prior to participation in a 4-H event/activity/leadership role a standard of acceptable behavior, via the Consequences of Misbehavior and Code of Conduct. Standards of behavior and consequences should be reviewed with participants as part of the initial orientation.

1. Extension employee obtains all the relevant facts.
2. Brief the on-site adult responsible for the youth delegate (Extension employee or 4-H volunteer).
3. If not on-site, but available via phone, brief the county Extension employee and District Extension Administrator responsible.
4. Review Consequences of Misbehavior. The following steps should be taken when sending a 4-H member home:
   - Extension personnel/event manager contacts parents.
   - Advise parents that child is being sent home by safest, most direct means, and that parents are responsible for associated costs.
   - Extension personnel/event manager decides if parents should be given the option of picking up the child.
   - County Extension faculty member collects money from parent to pay transportation charges.
   - Follow-up correspondence from Extension employee/event manager to appropriate county agent, District 4-H Leadership Team (District 4-H Specialist and District Extension Administrator), child and parent for documentation.
5. For all reprimands, a Summary Letter and Accident/Incident Report Form will be completed and mailed to the 4-H member, parent, County Extension Agents, District Extension Administrator, County Extension Directors (if applicable), 4-H Specialist, and Texas 4-H Youth Program Director.

I have read the Texas 4-H Consequences of Misbehavior and understand what violators may expect. I agree with the Code of Conduct and do intend to abide by it throughout my 4-H activities.
